1. Initial output after execution of form1,the below window will be displayed:

2. After clicking Run option, the form is ready to insert details.

3. Insertion of details from the user, then click the "Transfer" button. The form shows the amount is transferred successfully and available balance.

4. After insertion of the details, the details are loaded into the database and it is shown in the form of table by clicking list button.

5. The complete details of the bank-customers including names, amount and balance after deducting the amount from the available balance.

Thank You